LOCAL MATTERS.

THE ATLANTIC, MISSISSIPPI AND OHIO CASE POSTPONED TILL JUNE.—Judge Robert Hughes opened the United States Circuit Court yesterday morning. Judge Bond was not present. Mr. Henry T. Wickham, of counsel for the trustees of the THE GERMAN POLITICAL CLUBS Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio railroad under the $15,000,000 mortgage, asked that the consideration of the motion for appointment of a receiver and foreclosure of the mortgage be deferred for one week. He stated that Mr. Collinson, the agent of the British bondholders, had just arrived in this country, and they desired to have some time to consult with him.

After comparison of views it was ascertained that a delay of one week would not suit counsel on the other side or Judge Hughes, and the Judge concluded to enter an order adjourning the case till June 1st. Chief-Justice Waite will probably be here on the 16th. It is understood that he has no intention of sitting in the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio case. TEL CHEAP.—$4.50 and $5. LONA COKE, $4.75, $5.25, and $5.75.

THE CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE-A POINT OF ETIQUETTE SETTLED-DELIVERY OF TICKETS-ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE-STATE CONVENTION-COMMISSIONERS AND CLERKS-REGISTRATION.

A meeting of the City Conservative Committee was held last night. Mr. R. H. Whitlock, a member of the Jefferson Ward delegation, asked if, in view of the fact that he was a candidate for the Council, it would not be necessary and proper for him to resign his membership of the committee. It lows: was explained that members of the committee had nothing whatever to do with conducting the primary election, or counting or announcing the vote. Mr. Whitlock did not therefore press his resignation.

It was decided that the tickets shall be delivered to the ward superintendents on the night before election. ITS HISTORYLAND WHO VOTED FOR IT. CASODATE FOR HULLEDSSTARIE,

As the ordinance concerning the paving of sidewalks seems to have been made an issue in file present campass in certain wards of the city, our residers in those wards will be interested in a brief history of the ordinance in the city, our residers in those wards will be interested in a brief history of the ordinance in the city, our residers in those wards will be interested in a brief history of the ordinance in the votem of history of the partial of the Votem of Bichmond.

The responsibilities of my position as constant was inforted by the City Council on each of constant was before that body.

On April 14, 1878; General Newberry, from the Committee on Streets, presented an ordinance requiring the awners of property on graded and curbed streets to have the whole of the sidewalk paved with brick and the guttering paved with stone. It was adopted by the following vote:

ATES.—Messrs Bargamin, Bossieux, Cottrell, Da-is, English of Montoe, Forrester, Gentry, Hall, liggins, Jones, Kerse, Lipscomb, Manly, Newberry, tarke, Scott of Jefferson, Strain, Wagner, Wynne-9. NOZS.—Messrs, Chesterman, Enker, Metzger, Oli-er of Jackson, Yanderrall, and Whittock.—5. The barden imposed upon the property-older by the enectment of this ordinance holder by the ensement of this ordinance requiring him to pave both the sidewalk ing that all of my energy and talent have and stone gutfer produced so much dissatisation that on July 14, 1878, General Newberry, from the same committee, moved to amend it as follows:

"Whenever any street in the city shall respectively submitted.

"Whenever any street in the city shall John F. Regnault.

have been graded, GUTTERED, and curbed, in whole or in part, including the walkways, it shall be incumbent upon the owners of now to elect their own delegates to the State tention is now seriously called to the sub-the property along said streets to pave the walkway the full width across their fronts with brick or such other material as the Committee on Streets may approve. * * * Whenever any sidewalk in the city which lecting candidates by a primary election to has been laid prior to April 14, 1873, shall be held on the 5th day of May instant, earnneed relaying, it shall be the duty of the estly appeal to the voters of Richmond to owner thereof to pave the same at his own of so many thousand citizens and almost a cost as aforesaid, provided the same should plan. have been originally laid at the expense of the city. Whenever any street shall have been graded, guttered, and curbed, the Engineer shall notify the owner or owners fronting or cornering thereon to at once pave the walkways thereof; and should the owner or owners thereof fail within fifteen thorities of the city would have granted the days to comply with said order, then the Engineer is required to cause the same to be done by the city contractor and present the bill of costs thereof to the owner or owners. All repairs to walkways shall be done at the expense of the city."

The ordinance as thus amended was adopted by the following vote: AYES,—Messrs, Bargamin, Bossieux, Braselman, Cottrell, Davis, English of Marshall, English of Monroe, Forrester, Gentry, Higgins, Jones, Kerse, Manly, Metzger, Newberry, Starke, Scott of Jefferson, Straus, Talbott, Tower, Vandervall, and Wynne—22.

The ordinance remained in force until by reason of a simple clerical error committed in compiling the new volume of city ordinances, the compiler inadvertently substituted the ordinance of April 14, 1873, for that of July 14, 1873, and by virtue of the ordinances as published in the volume became of legal effect April 1, 1875.

To correct this error, on April 26, 1875, the Committee on Streets reported an ordinance similar in all important features to that of July 14, 1873, excepting that all repairs to sidewalks from and after that date should be charged to the owners of pro-

ing vote. AYES.—Messrs. Bass, Beall, Carrington, Forrester, Lipscomb, Manly, Ordway, Smith, Spangenburg, Todd, Wagner, Williams, Zimmer, and Meredith—

cil on May 18, 1875, as follows:

So it will be seen that, whether the ordinance is a wise one or an unwise one, it is by no means a new measure, and that whenever it has been put to the vote during the past three years it has been carried by a very large majority in the Council.

JOHN F. REGNAULT. Address to the People.

RICHMOND, May 2, 1876. The Central Committee of the Conservative party of the city of Richmond having laid down and promulgated a plan for seunite in supporting and carrying out that

As it was impossible in the nature of things that the deliberations of the committeeshould result in a plan for choosing candidates that would accord with the views of every one, it is the duty of all who do not wish to make shipwreck of the Conservative party to accept as binding the plan which has been adopted by the committee as the one which seemed the least open to objection of any that were submitted to them. If any member of the Conservative party is not inclined to accede to this plan of a primary election, let such an one reflect that he is encouraging a spirit whose tendency is to destroy the organization of that party, the palladium under which equal and impartial justice has been administered in this Commonwealth without and street in Ninth. this Commonwealth, without regard to race or color, during a period in which the governments of some of our sister States have been little better than instruments for the spoliation of the people in the hands of wicked men. Fellow-citizens of Richmond, when we contemplate the humiliation, the dismay, the spoliation, the profligate abuse of the public "enacting and repealing ordinance" all credit, the ruinous taxation which would overwhelm and convulse this city we love so well, should it fall a prey to unscrupulous men through our dissensions, how trivial and unworthy, in comparison, seem the causes which now threaten discord amongst us. Wherefore, fellow-citizens of the Conservative party, the Central Committee do con-

The British Celebration of 1876. MEETING OF FARMVILLE SETTLERS-UNANI-MOUS ACTION.

A special meeting of the Farmville British Association was held on Monday, May 1, 1876—Charles Bugg, Esq., first vice-president, in the chair. Mr. Alfred Moth, of the English and American Bank, acted as Secretary.

Mr. St. Andrew stated the steps that were now being taken in Petersburg to arrange for a celebration on the Queen's birthday. The committee of the State Association having failed to act, Dr. Whitehead and the Petersburg friends had gallantly come forward at the eleventh hour, and determined not only to have a celebration but to make it a success. If everybody would put their shoulders to the wheel the celebration would be as memorable as that of 1874, which had done more to advance immigration than any other movement. The Chair and Messrs. Edgar Allan, Alfred Moth, and other gentlemen warmly concurred in the celebration.

On motion of Mr. F. H. Twelvetrees it was unanimously Resolved, 1. That the celebration of Queen Victoria's birthday in Virginia has already done vast good in the advancement of colonization and the promotion of social intercourse among citizens and settlers. 2. That the proposed British celebration in Petersburg deserves the heartiest sympathy and support of every settler. 3. That the Hon. Edgar Allan and J. A. assignee was allowed fifty dollars for ser- H. St. Andrew, Esq., be appointed a delegation from this Association to cooperate with the friends in Petersburg. 4. That the Hon. Edgar Allan be appointed to wait on the Right Hon. Sir Edward the 10th of May, 1876, why the sale of the storehouse and lots in the proceedings men-5. That this meeting earnestly hopes that the British settlers throughout the State will render all the assistance in their power to this movement. 6. That inasmuch as British Virginians, in getting up the celebration, are mainly actuated by the desire to advance the interests of their adopted State; and inasmuch as this year everybody will also be put to the expense of a trip to the Centennial exhibition, it is therefore respectfully submitted that in order to secure a large attendance of the settlers, their wives and daughters, at the Petersburg celebration, the various railroad companies would do well to accord the most liberal terms of transportation. In pursuance of the above Mr. Allan started for Washington on Monday for the purpose of waiting in person on Sir Edward Thornton, G. C. B.
